

I am outraged at Sinclair Broadcasting's obvious attempt to 'buy' this election for President Bush. Their free campaign contribution not only violates the spirit of Campaign Finance Reform, it violates the public interest in favor of private and corporate interests.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

As they have shown themselves to be unconcerned with real news and real reporting, the license issued to Sinclair Broadcasting should be immediately revoked, and all their public airwaves privileges invalidated.
